TTO Team Members on GM Twitter

GM recently added a new tool to its social media toolbox with the addition of @MFG_GM on Twitter. Here, you can find the latest manufacturing news, spotlights on employees, new technology and trends.

Several GM plants are providing local content to share on this Twitter account, so don't be surprised, if someone asks you to participate and sign a photo consent form, allowing us to use your image

There are several TTO team member features posted here. It's a great way to share with family and friends what GM Manufacturing is doing across the United States.
