Executive Vice President Global Manufacturing Visit Recap

On Friday, June 22, 2018, Alicia Boler Davis, Vice President Global Manufacturing visited TTO accompanied by Gerald Johnson, Vice President NA Manufacturing / Labor Relations, and Arvin Jones, Manufacturing Executive Director. UAW Servicing Rep. Chad Cattell was also among the invited guests.

Their visit included a meeting with the Key 4, a general plant overview and introductions to the plant staff and union representation.

A tour of the plant began with a Team Leader Huddle of RWD 6/8 Speed led by TL Curt Bangerter (pictured left). From there the group proceeded to the next station and discussed Innovation / 1st 48 with presentations by Jodi Lindow, Area Manager, Jeffrey J Kosola, GF6 ME Manager and Richard Wuerfel, Maintenance Systems Manager Scrap Reduction Team. Below, Jodi Lindow gives her presentation as Gerald Johnson, Arvin Jones, Eric Gonzales and Alicia Boler Davis look on.

A review of the Level 1 BPD / SPQRCE was completed by the west wall of the Action Center and included the plant staff. Below Bill Wynn, GF6 Area Manager, addresses the tour.

Both launches were covered beginning with FWD and Chris Brandly (below addressing the group), Plant Launch Operations Manager, Tom Ruddy, UAW Launch Coordinator and the rest of the team where the FWD launch progress was discussed.

The RWD Launch was covered by Sharon Kreinbrink, Plant Launch Operations Manager, Bev Long, UAW Launch Coordinator, and their team. The visitors donned their PPE with hard hats and reflective vests to tour the construction area and review the progress of the team.

Here, Sharon Krienbrink details the progress with Alicia Boler Davis, Eric Gonzales, Plant Executive Director, and Bev Long, UAW Launch Coordinator.
